As part of the ICMA Centre, MSc International Securities, Investment and Banking degree, students have the opportunity to write the IFID Certificate. Established for over 30 years as THE qualification for the fixed income market, the IFID Certificate puts emphasis on developing practical skills for trading, investment and risk management. This is a demanding, examined course aimed at developing a broad and in-depth knowledge of the key fixed income instruments, derivatives and markets.

IFID forms part of the suite of ICMA Executive Education courses that provide training for beginner, intermediate and advanced professionals covering front, middle and operation functions. ICMA provide in-house and public course offerings including the Financial Markets Foundation Course (FMFC), Primary Market Certificate (PMC), the Operations Certificate Programme (OCP) as well as a number of tailor made courses in markets, regulation and operations.

Notes for editors:

1. ICMA Centre

The ICMA Centre ('The Business School for Financial Markets') is part of the University of Reading and was founded in 1991 by a grant from the International Capital Market Association (ICMA). It is largely a graduate school that offers MSc programmes in finance in securities and markets, investment management, risk management and regulation and compliance. It also provides the teaching and examination for ICMA's Executive Education programmes. See: www.icmacentre.ac.uk

2. International Capital Market Association (ICMA)

ICMA is the self-regulatory organisation representing the financial institutions active in the international capital market worldwide. ICMA's members are located in some 50 countries across the globe, including all the world's main financial centres, and currently number almost 400 firms. See: www.icmagroup.org
